

APPENDIX A

WHAT ANGELS DO

ANGELS WERE ACTIVE at the resurrection.

And behold, there was a great earthquake; for an angel of the Lord descended from heaven, and came and rolled back the stone from the door, and sat on it. His countenance was like lightning, and his clothing as white as snow.

—MATTHEW 28:2–3

One angel killed 185,000 enemies of God's people.

And it came to pass on a certain night that the angel of the LORD went out, and killed in the camp of the Assyrians one hundred and eighty-five thousand.

—2 KINGS 19:35

Holy angels shut the mouths of lions.

My God sent His angel and shut the lions' mouths, so that they have not hurt me.

—DANIEL 6:22

Angels were active at the birth of Jesus. Angels bring peace.

And behold, an angel of the Lord stood before them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were greatly afraid. Then the angel said to them, "Do not be afraid."

—LUKE 2:9-10

Angels are sent from God to minister to believers.

Are they [angels] not all ministering spirits sent forth to minister for those who will inherit salvation?

—HEBREWS 1:14

Angels escort believers into God's presence.

So it was that the beggar died, and was carried by the angels to Abraham's bosom. The rich man also died and was buried.

—LUKE 16:22

Angels minister strength in times of heaviness.

Then an angel appeared to Him from heaven, strengthening Him.

—LUKE 22:43

Angels obey His Word and praise Him.

Bless the LORD, you His angels,
Who excel in strength, who do His word,
Heeding the voice of His word.

—PSALM 103:20

Angels are ever watchful and keep His Word.

For He shall give His angels charge over you,
To keep you in all your ways.
In their hands they shall bear you up,
Lest you dash your foot against a stone.

—PSALM 91:11-12

Angels surround those who trust the Lord.

The angel of the LORD encamps all around those who fear Him,
And delivers them.

—PSALM 34:7

Angels will be active in judgment and the Second Coming.

The Son of Man will send out His angels, and they will gather out of His kingdom all things that offend, and those who practice lawlessness, and will cast them into the furnace of fire. There will be wailing and gnashing of teeth.

—MATTHEW 13:41–42

Angels are special agents sent by God.

Then the high priest rose up, and all those who were with him (which is the sect of the Sadducees), and they were filled with indignation, and laid their hands on the apostles and put them in the common prison. But at night an angel of the Lord opened the prison doors and brought them out.

—ACTS 5:17–19

Angels appear in many forms and fashions.

But the Angel of the LORD called to him from heaven and said, “Abraham, Abraham!” And he said, “Here I am.”

—GENESIS 22:11

An angel of the Lord appeared to Joseph in a dream.

—MATTHEW 2:13

This Moses whom they rejected, saying, “Who made you a ruler and a judge?” is the one God sent to be a ruler and a deliverer by the hand of the Angel who appeared to him in the bush.

—ACTS 7:35

About the ninth hour of the day he saw clearly in a vision an angel of God coming in and saying to him, “Cornelius!”

—ACTS 10:3

Do not forget to entertain strangers, for by so doing some have unwittingly entertained angels.

—HEBREWS 13:2

Angels can guard, protect, and lead.

Behold, I send an Angel before you to keep you in the way and to bring you into the place which I have prepared. Beware of Him and obey His voice; do not provoke Him, for He will not pardon your transgressions; for My name is in Him.

—EXODUS 23:20–21

Angels can be God's enforcers.

Then immediately an angel of the Lord struck him, because he did not give glory to God. And he was eaten by worms and died.

—ACTS 12:23

Angels don't know the time of the end.

But of that day and hour no one knows, not even the angels of heaven, but My Father only.

—MATTHEW 24:36

Angels respond to God.

Or do you think that I cannot now pray to My Father, and He will provide Me with more than twelve legions of angels?

—MATTHEW 26:53

APPENDIX B

DEMONS OR NO DEMONS

DEMONS OR NO demons, here are some good things to consider.

A wise man will hear and increase learning,
And a man of understanding will attain wise counsel.

—PROVERBS 1:5

Don't allow painful memories.

Tomorrow will take care of itself.

Always agree with God's Word.

Get proper rest.

Go to bed mad; wake up sad.

Worship regularly.

Live with a constant awareness of God's presence.

Have a purposeful routine.

Don't overdo it. Delegate wisely and learn to say no.

Trust others. Let them help you.

Yesterday is gone. Don't live in the past.

Regret is a “bad dog.”

Choose your words carefully.

Take it easy, one day at a time.

Incur NO credit card debt—none.

Unclutter your life. Life is simple.

Purposely balance your life.

Golf is good.

Pace yourself.

Have a budget, and live within it.

Have a plan.

Learn to laugh.

Choose godly friends.

Eat right; be smart. Be disciplined.

Don't be late.

Pick up after yourself.

Write down thoughts and inspirations.

Go to bed on time.

The end of depression begins with doing things for others.

Choose your music wisely.

You learn by listening.

Make sure your presence makes others feel better.

Always have something to which you look forward.

Make friends with godly folks.

Make someone else laugh. Laugh some more.

Give your love to someone.

Exercise forgiveness.

Pride precedes failure.

The inside of your car is a tattletale.

Listen more; talk less.

Do things that are worthwhile.

Live thankful.

Encourage someone.

Practice receiving God's love and grace.

Don't be critical; people do the best they can.

Make your words energize ministering angels.

Don't sell "snake oil." Don't buy snake oil.

If cleanliness is not next to godliness, it is high on the list.

Your opinion is probably not that important to others.

Why not be the best you can be?

Have realistic expectations.

Faith comes by hearing the Word of God.

Take time to make decisions concerning others.

Be on time, always.

It is usually not necessary to give advice.

TV is not that important.

Learn to relax.

Don't condemn yourself.

Don't get even.

Bitterness must not find a place in your heart.

Practice joy.

Take pride in what you do—not in what you’ve done.

Be neat. Clutter reflects you.

Exercise faith. God is a faith God.

Keep your home ready for an important visitor.

Hope is in you; call on it when necessary.

Don’t believe a lie.

Compliment someone.

Don’t let anger linger.

Rest in truth.

Invest wisely.

Eat out sometimes; enjoy it, and be thankful you can.

Your loved ones need you in good health.

Keep your mind active.

If something needs to be done, you do it.

You have more than most people. Don’t complain.

Don’t procrastinate.

If you’re forgiven, act like it; guilt is an unnecessary burden.

Check your conversation; don’t talk about yesterday.

What if and if only should never be topics of discussion.

Concern requires action. Worry acquires headaches.

Medicine is OK if you need it; don’t be “squirrely” about it.

Don’t mistake wealth for prosperity.

Faith may be life's most important ingredient.

Play games with others; fellowship with others.

No one makes you eat.

Don't look for blame.

Why not be the best you can be?

When you walk in the room, make it brighter.

Get out of debt.

Practice discipline.

Simplify life. Enjoy it.

Don't be in the position of having to make excuses.

Be on time—you disrespect others when you are late.

Get the speck out of your own eye,

Don't complicate simple things; let the government do that.

Tell God that you love Him.

Give something to someone.

Be wise as a serpent and harmless as a dove.

Everyone deserves a kind word.

Enjoy today.

Be the blesser.

Praise with thanksgiving invites God's presence.

Bodily exercise is overrated.

Don't show people pictures unless they ask; they usually don't care.

Blessings are in serving, not in being served.

Godly alignment is good.

Do what is expected of you.

Love people, and you become important to them.

If you don't take care of your body, who will?

Have realistic expectations.

Harmony is a good thing.

Disdain distraction.

Have something worthwhile to do.

Give from your heart.

You probably don't need to buy anything.

Three necessities:

- Someone to love

- Something to which you look forward

- Something worthwhile to do
