

United Single Adults Ministry (USAM)

General Terms & Conditions for Events

1. Discipline and Conduct

All participants are expected to conduct themselves in a manner consistent with Christian values and USAM's mission.

Any disruptive, lewd, harassing, violent, or disrespectful behavior will result in immediate removal from the event without refund.

All guests must obey the rules of the host facility. Enforcement and disciplinary decisions are made at the sole discretion of USAM staff and security.

2. Zero Tolerance Policy

USAM maintains a zero tolerance policy for:

- Harassment, sexual harassment, physical assault, or disorderly conduct
- Theft or destruction of property
- Possession or use of drugs, alcohol, tobacco, fireworks, explosives, or weapons

Violation of this policy will result in immediate expulsion and may include notification of law enforcement.

3. Right to Search

To ensure the safety of all participants, USAM staff reserves the right to search personal belongings or vehicles at any time during the event without prior notice or explanation, particularly if there is suspicion of prohibited items or unsafe behavior.

4. Media Release

By attending any USAM event, you agree that photos, videos, and/or audio recordings may be taken and used by USAM for promotional, educational, or ministry-related purposes (including online or printed media).

If you do not consent to be recorded or photographed, you must notify USAM in writing prior to the event.

5. Medical Release

In the event of a medical emergency where you cannot be reached, you authorize USAM to seek medical care, including hospitalization, anesthesia, or surgery, on your behalf.

A qualified medical professional or on-site Health Supervisor may provide medical assistance as deemed necessary.

Note: USAM does not provide medical insurance for any event participant.

6. Waiver and Indemnity Agreement

By participating in USAM events, you acknowledge that activities may involve physical risk (including outdoor recreation, travel, and lodging), and you agree to:

- Participate voluntarily
- Assume all risks of injury, property loss, or even death
- Release USAM, its staff, volunteers, and facility partners from any liability or legal claims arising from your participation

This agreement applies to you, your heirs, and representatives, and is enforceable to the fullest extent of state law.

7. Personal Vehicles

USAM and facility staff reserve the right to search any vehicle on premises if there is a reasonable concern about safety or prohibited items.

8. Event-Specific Guidelines

Additional guidelines related to dress code, curfew, dorm/room assignments, gender-specific housing, or schedule will be communicated per event.

Participants must comply with all additional posted or written instructions.
